Notice.

A. Kennedy, et al. vs. James B. Duncan et al. In this case it appears from the records of the court that the Respondents A. Kennedy, J. B. Duncan, John B. Duncan, Lazarus A. Duncan, —— Duncan, and J. S. Duncan are not in the State of Tennessee, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon them. Let publication be made in four successive weeks in the Maryville Republican newspaper, that publication to be made at the Court House in Maryville on the 24th Monday of June, to plead, to witness or demur to the complaint, bill, or cause of action, or to confess and to set for hearing experts to the same.

On the 24th of June, 1870.

Notice.

In obedience to a decree of the Chancery Court for Blount Co. Tennessee, rendered at the December Term 1869, I will sell to the highest bidder at the Court House in Maryville on the 7th day of May, 1870, three lots of real estate which I have sold to the State of Tennessee, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon them. Let publication be made in four successive weeks in the Maryville Republican newspaper, that publication to be made at the Court House in Maryville on the 24th Monday of June, to plead, to witness or demur to the complaint, bill, or cause of action, or to confess and to set for hearing experts to the same.

This, January 23rd, 1870.
